LODGE

QUEENSLAND, AUSTRALIA

WELCOME TO THE QUEENSLAND OUTBACK

With the backdrop of its majestic 18-kilometre long sandstone namesake, Mt Mulligan Lodge offers laid-back luxury in the rugged outback environment of Queensland and is the newest member of the Luxury Lodges of Australia.

Located on a 28,000-hectare working cattle station, Mt Mulligan Lodge invites just 16 guests to experience the spirit of the outback through a captivating landscape that's steeped in indigenous significance dating back 37,000 years. The expansive property bears the marks of the historic gold and coal rush and in its current operation, the pastoral history of Australia.

A swag of experiences have been designed to make the most of the rugged outback territory. In keeping with the outback surrounds, the dress code is relaxed at Mt Mulligan Lodge. Solid walking shoes, comfortable and light casual clothes and some layers and a jacket if travelling in the cooler months is recommended. A hat and sunscreen are essential year-round, and a camera and adventurous attitude are a must!

Due to its isolated location, the lodge has no cellular phone reception, however you can connect to the Wi-Fi at the lodge's main pavilion.

Helicopter Transfers ex Cairns

Easily accessible from Cairns Airport, enjoy a 35 minute helicopter journey over the Kuranda Ranges and Atherton Tablelands to Mt Mulligan Lodge. Domestic passengers arriving into Cairns Airport will be met at the baggage carousel by a friendly member of the Nautilus Aviation team. International passengers will be met after customs in the arrivals hall (the other side of the door) by Nautilus Aviation. Guests are to keep an eye out for a sign which notes your surname. For any guests making your own way to the Nautilus Aviation hangar, the address is - Hangar 9, Bush Pilot's Ave, General Aviation, Aeroglen, QLD. Guests are to meet at the hangar no later than 30 minutes prior to your scheduled helicopter departure time. Should you have any issues on the day, call the Nautilus Aviation office on +61 (0)7 4034 9000.

Helicopter Luggage Restrictions

Due to helicopter safety requirements and space restrictions, each guest is restricted to one small bag, to a maximum weight of 15kgs in total. Your 15kgs includes all handbags, camera bags and luggage, and all luggage will be weighed on check-in. Soft duffel/tote bags are required as they best fit the helicopter boot. If you arrive with a structured suitcase, there are duffel bags on-site for you to re-pack your luggage into. Excess luggage can be safely stored at the hangar whilst you're at Mt Mulligan Lodge. Due to space limitations please do not bring one large bag between two guests. To assist, Mt Mulligan Lodge offers a complimentary laundry service for all guests (however, dry cleaning is not available).

What to Pack?

Whilst Mt Mulligan Lodge provides the ultimate in outback luxury, a range of experiences have been designed to make the most of the rugged terrain. In keeping with the outback surrounds, the dress-code at Mt Mulligan Lodge is relaxed. Guests are encouraged to pack comfortable casual wear for the day - light, loose clothing including trousers, closed footwear and/or solid walking shoes are recommended if you intend to participate in hiking, fishing and other outdoor experiences. Relaxed evening wear is encouraged over dinner in the main pavilion. Over the winter months layers, a warm jacket, a beanie and scarf are recommended as dawn and the nights can become quite crisp and cold. A hat and sunscreen are essential year-round and don't forget your swimwear to enjoy the infinity pool, weir and various creeks dotted across the property. A camera and adventurous attitude are also a must!

Travel Insurance

The remote nature of Mt Mulligan Lodge ensures a rugged and intimate escape. However, due to its accessibility and its range of experiences that have been designed to make the most of the outback territory, it is recommended that guests purchase travel insurance to cover any unforeseen circumstances prior to travelling. Although all care is taken, the Northern Escape Collection cannot accept responsibility for any expenses incurred by a guest as a result of domestic/international flight delays, re-schedules or alterations, mechanical failures, poor weather or accidents.
