On LOCATION

Immerse yourself in nature and tranquillity

Overlooked by the pink-hued Hazards Mountains, the pristine coastline of Freycinet on Tasmania's east coast is a breathtaking landscape of native bushland, amber boulders and turquoise waters. It's also where you'll find Saffire Freycinet. Featuring 20 completely private suites, each with sweeping views of Great Oyster Bay and the Hazards Mountains, this proved the perfect location to showcase a few Australian designers leading the eco-charge by using natural fibres and sustainable practices and ensuring our beautiful environment and landscape are front of mind with each collection. At Saffire, guests can take part in a range of complimentary experiences focused on place, nature, culture and produce, including Connection to Country, beekeeping, cooking demonstrations, kayaking, guided hiking, and birdwatching. Or simply relax and enjoy the tranquillity. Whatever type of experience you desire, one thing is for sure: Saffire has you covered. Visit saffire-freycinet.com.au
